WORD

*FIRST READING

1 Corinthians 12:3b–13

A reading from 1 Corinthians, the 12th chapter. Listen for the word of God.

Our ears and hearts are open.

³ No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. ⁷To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

⁸To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, ⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

¹²For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

(Synod multi-lingual video) Acts 2:1-21

The holy gospel according to Acts.

Glory to you, O Lord.

¹When the day of Pentecost had come, [the apostles] were all together in one place. ²And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

⁵Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." ¹²All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" ¹³But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

¹⁴But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. ¹⁶No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷"In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

¹⁸Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

¹⁹And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

²⁰The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,

before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

²¹Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

 With . . . bold new de - ci - sions your peo - ple a - rise.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

On this day of Pentecost we unite in prayer, asking God to send the Holy Spirit on the church, the world, and all who are in need.

A brief silence.

We pray for the church around the globe:

For the Eastern Orthodox churches, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

For the Roman Catholic church, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

For Protestant and Anglican churches, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

For Pentecostal churches, we pray, Come, Holy Spirit!

For evangelicals and independents, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

For our own congregation, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

And for everyone who searches for you, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Restore with your breath the whole creation, especially the lands and waters laden with pollution and the animals whose habitats are threatened.

A brief silence.

For your earth, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Send your Spirit on the leaders of nations, on legislators, and on judges, that the people of the world will benefit from your justice and your peace.

A brief silence.

For the nations of the world, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Visit all who are suffering, all who feel hopeless, and all who face death.

A brief silence.

For all who are in need, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Restore to health those who have contracted the virus. Uphold health-care workers, grant jobs to those who are unemployed, and assist researchers in discovering a vaccine.

A brief silence.

For all who are confronting the coronavirus, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Bless those who are graduating from schools and universities. Give our youth hope for their future.

A brief silence.

For our graduates we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Show our nation and our churches how to connect with those whose language we cannot speak.

A brief silence.

For the speakers of every language under the sun we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

As Elizabeth welcomed Mary to her home, give us ways during this time to share with one another the faithfulness we receive from you. Surprise us with unexpected grace.

A brief silence.

For family members and friends, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Hear also the cries of our own hearts. [Here other petitions from the people are offered.]

For ourselves, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

Receive our praise for all who for centuries have gone before us in the faith, from the first Pentecost, throughout Christian history, and up to this week.

A brief silence.

That at the end we and all the saints will rejoice in your presence, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit!

With bold confidence in your love, almighty God, we place all for whom we pray into your eternal care; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

PEACE

May the peace of the Lord be with you all.

And also with you.

*You may greet others and may say,
"Peace be with you." or similar words.*

 In Honor of Eric and Stephanie Running's 40th Anniversary*

*OFFERING PRAYER

God of goodness and growth,
all creation is yours,
and your faithfulness is as firm as the heavens.
Water and word, wine and bread:
these are signs of your abundant grace.
Nourish us through these gifts,
that we might proclaim your steadfast love
in our communities and in the world, through Jesus Christ, our strength and our song.

Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

Let us lift up our hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, O God,
whose gift of Holy Spirit is poured out continuously on all creation, germinating seeds of humor and hope,
moving in the pulse of life,
blazing in the fires of justice and truth.

Fulfilling Jesus' promise not to leave his followers comfortless, your Spirit ignited visions and dreams, filling women and men with clarity and power,
and intoxicating young and old alike with longing to proclaim your uncontainable grace.

Blessed is our brother Jesus, who comes behind the doors we have closed and breathes on our fear his fearful peace;
who, on the night when he was betrayed,
took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said:
This is my body, given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.

continued

In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying,
This cup is the new and eternal covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people
for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Come now, O Spirit of Christ, brood over these bodily things,
this bread and wine,
and we ourselves,
made one with you,
and thus with each other.

Blessed are you, Spirit of all creation, and blessed is the communion
into which you gather us and the mission
on which you send us.

Come, Holy Spirit.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Remember us Lord, and teach us to pray:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

Vacation Bible School - Update by Pastor Gretchen

Vacation Bible School (VBS) is up in the air for this summer. If you were hoping/planning to attend or volunteer for VBS, I have a few questions I'd love you to answer so we can better plan for our opportunities:

- Would you/your student be interested in an "online" VBS? If "yes" would you prefer it once a week for 5 weeks, or all at once?
- If we make VBS kits for families who want to participate, can you help assemble and deliver them?

Let me know your thoughts by emailing pastor.gretchen@ourredeemers.net. We can do this as long as we're together!
