A Community in the Model of Christ

From the Pastor...

Transitions are a gift; they are messy, and laborious. No matter the stage of our lives each of us seems to be transitioning, whether with family, relationships, work/retirement, or all of the above.

My son transitions from college this May. From the parental side of things, and perhaps the child's side too, transitions never seem to happen fast enough. From the actual preparations in college to finding a successful job in the rugged, real world, what stands out to me about transitions is that no matter what kind they might be, they seem to bring about new opportunities for engagement that previously we have not fully had. That is, with all of the honors he will be graduating with from college, he is still on the verge of having to exercise all of his learned book knowledge with new street smarts.

I am also reminded of your transition as a congregation, and how rich, and yes slow, it has been. Perhaps it has not gone proceeded at a pace that some of you may have appreciated. Yet, what transitions afford are opportunities for identity reflection and possible recalibrations. Personally, it has been a quick time spent with you at Our Redeemers. I am grateful for my time with you in so many ways. Leading worship, preaching, and teaching has helped me to know you all so much better as a community—your loves and passions.

Through this time of transition, it has been my single-minded focus to accompany you with the deepest awareness that the Leader of your community is still and always will be present with you—Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

What I have seen time and again is that congregations who learn to put their trust in the continuing presence of Jesus are those who learn how to manage the true spiritual journey of transitions that are ahead. This April we hear words of assurance that Jesus has come to bear the suffering of the world, to experience life in this world as one who is pushed out of the world (via the cross) and so identifies with the suffering ones of the world. His life embraces our experience and forms us as a community trusting how Jesus continues to show up in the world in need of compassion, mercy, and love.

The greatest transition for us as people of faith is when Jesus is raised from the dead. This transition not only secures for all people a future in God but even more importantly assures us of an opening for how we live our transitions still today—with hope and the promise of life for all. This crucified and risen life is the mystery of our faith and life. It is the Divine Transition giving us faith, hope, and love in our own continued transitions with a small “t”.

May your imagination continue to be renewed in this promise of the Great Transition, and may it give you, the faithful and beloved community of Our Redeemers Lutheran Church, the blessing and encouragement you need to remain faithful in your witness to Christ and the Spirit.

OUR VISION: In the model of Christ and for the life of the world, we are an inclusive, devoted, caring, and spiritual community that accepts challenges, takes risks, and grows.

Worship and Music

Holy Week at Our Redeemer's

April 2: Palm/ Passion Sunday "Where Are You Headed?"

Beginning outside with palms and processing, we will then move into the sanctuary for the telling of the passion narrative and remember the story of Jesus' journey to the cross in love and loyalty to God and all of humanity. This service contains many emotions from joy and elation at the procession of the Humble King, to the agony of his death in the crucifixion.

April 6: Maundy Thursday "Will You Wash My Feet?"

We will start our evening at 6:00 pm with "Soup and Stories" - a potluck dinner of soup and homemade bread. Each family is invited to bring a pot of homemade soup from their family's history. Then we will share a story related to the soup. Following our meal, we will begin our liturgy with foot-washing, followed by communion and the stripping of the altar. This is a wonderful interactive service remembering the last supper of Jesus and his disciples.

April 7: Good Friday "Why Have You Forsaken Me?"

7:00 pm - Our service of Tenebrae (Shadows) is a candlelight service remembering and reflecting on the last words of Christ through prayer, music, and silence. This moving service is deeply rooted in the tradition of the church, and is beautiful and moving.

April 7-8: Good Friday 24-hour Prayer Vigil

Beginning at noon on Good Friday, and continuing until noon on Holy Saturday, we invite individuals to sign up to pray for an hour in our prayer chapel. It is a time to remember the world, pray for mercy and healing, and to find solace in our sanctuary. There is a deep sense of the sacred when one is praying in the dark and quiet of the middle of the night while we remember Christ's death and burial. Find the link to sign up here: <https://ourredeemers.net/holy-week-and-easter/>

April 9: Easter Sunday "Who Are You Looking For?"

Sunrise Service - 6:30 am in Carkeek Park

Join us in the wee hours of the morning for a service of light and resurrection! We will welcome new members, celebrate holy baptism and communion, and rejoice and be glad. He is risen indeed! Contact Mandy (welcome@ourredeemers.net) to help make this service happen - we need many hands.

Easter Festival Worship

9:00 am & 11:00 am at Our Redeemer's

He is risen! Come and blow the trumpets, ring the bells, and spread the Good News! We worship with joy and thanksgiving at the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Easter Breakfast

8:00 am - 10:00 am at Our Redeemer's

Warm yourself after the sunrise service with a hearty breakfast at Our Redeemer's! All are welcome, and proceeds benefit our trip to Confirmation Camp this summer. Volunteers are needed and welcome to help make this meal happen.

Easter Egg Hunt

10:10 am

Our Redeemer's Front Lawn

All children are invited to bring a basket and hunt for eggs on our front lawn (weather permitting).

Worship and Music

*For the beauty of the Earth, for the beauty of the skies
For the love which from our birth over and around us lies Christ our God, to thee we raise, this our offering of praise.*

We know there are 40 days in Lent, but did you know there are 48 days of Easter? It's true! For the entire duration of the festival of Easter, April 16th – May 28th, we will be building our worship experience around the hymn, 'For the Beauty of the Earth,' merging our joy at new life and the resurrection of Jesus Christ with our Earthcare emphasis and the joy of spring in the Pacific Northwest.

As you celebrate, you are encouraged to do your part as a steward of creation – recycling, advocating for environmental justice, learning about our ecosystem, increasing your use of sustainable household goods, and getting outside to enjoy the beauty of nature. There are so many wonderful ways to make a difference in the health of our world! (See page 10 for details!)

We would love to hear how you and your family choose to participate in Earthcare this season. Send photos and snippets to Debbie at communication@ourredeemers.net.

Connect with Online Worshipers by Erica Lee

Hi! My name is Erica Lee and I am the Zoom Host and Facebook Live Host for the traditional 11 AM worship services on Sunday mornings at Our Redeemer's as well as for special worship services.

I wanted to update you all on where we are with online worship options and explain how our new online coffee hour works.

Online worship is available on both Zoom and Facebook Live for all 11 AM services and for special services coming up in April:

- Good Friday 7 PM service
- 9 AM and 11 AM Easter services.

Now, let's talk about how our revamped 10 AM coffee hour works! During the height of Covid, it was great to see everyone come together and talk and catch up online on Zoom. Since then, this hasn't been happening as much, so we created a new way for everyone to say "hello" again online.

There is a large poster in the Fellowship Hall inviting you to greet those who have been on Zoom during worship. Next to the poster is a laptop computer that you can use to interact with and chat with those on Zoom and Facebook who have stayed online for coffee hour. This way, those online can greet and enjoy our 10-11 AM coffee hour with those who have attended in person. You are invited to participate!

Please let me know if there are any questions about upcoming online services, or how our online coffee hour works:

Faith Formation

During the month of April, we continue to discuss the weekly Gospel lessons. In a conversational and interactive style, we explore and reflect more deeply on the rich post-Easter Scripture passages.

April Adult Forums by Pastor David Hahn

Sundays, April 16, 23, 30, 10 AM | Fellowship Hall

April 16

For this Second Sunday of Easter we consider the first of several resurrection appearances, this week from the Gospel of John (20:19-31). Come and consider how it is that the risen Jesus calls disciples from paralyzed and fearful places into purpose and renewed joy of life among others.

April 23

For this Third Sunday of Easter we consider Luke's version of Christ's resurrection appearance (Luke 24:13-35). Come and consider where, from Luke's testimony, that Jesus is made known, and how the disciples are moved to a renewed awareness and participation with Jesus' risen life.

April 30

For this Fourth Sunday of Easter we turn to the Good Shepherd Scripture passage from the Gospel of John 10:1-10. Come and be stirred to a new imagination for where and when Jesus as the Good Shepherd calls his disciples to deeper growth and followership.

Discovering What is Like To Be a Kid Again

by Tad Anderson

My wife and I started attending Our Redeemer's in Fall 2021 and joined last Easter. Since then, we've each found several places to plug ourselves in to this wonderful community. One thing I chose was to help out once a month in the O-Rock Sunday School - even though our own kids are long grown. What a great decision!

In the first place, we love being in a church where there are lots of kids and a vibrant Sunday School and Youth program. (That isn't a given these days.) Our kids had that when they were growing up, and it was a major part of their lives and a source of friendships to this day.

I think it's great for those of us who don't have young children to take on this task. It lets both the kids, and their parents get a break from each other and develop their own relationships. (Tip for new members: getting to know the kids is a lovely way to get to know the adults. I mean, what parent doesn't like to hear a little anecdote about their child?) In addition, teaching Sunday School gives a retired person like me a peek into what it's like to be a kid these days. Here's a tiny example: Last Sunday, the activity guide showed a child saying "thank you" in sign language. I asked the class if any of them knew any sign language. Whoa! I was surprised to learn that they all knew quite a few words - e.g., "more," "water" and, the all-important "bathroom."

Finally, teaching Bible stories is a good way to encounter them afresh. From Jonah and the Whale to the Prodigal Son, we've got some great material to work with. Over and over, it seems to me, these stories seem to be about drawing us out of selfish, anxious wandering and into trusting, purposeful relationships. Of course, the kids don't always sit still and listen. But maybe they're just acting out the sort of distractions we all experience when God is trying to reach us. We go off on silly tangents all the time, but when something "clicks," it's so worth it.

Our surprising kids!

LiVE Project Learning Opportunities: Earthcare Emphasis

You're invited to participate in the upcoming LiVE Project events this April and May.

Spring Retreat: Spirit-Stirring & Creation Care Saturday, April 1, 9 AM - 3 PM | First Lutheran, Bothell

The call of the Spirit is to renew the face of the earth by focusing our attention to creation as the very partner with whom God is bringing forth new life. For too long, many Christians have related to the land, and its ancestors, with domination and neglect. This day-long retreat focuses on how to restore dignity in relationship to creation, to rethink and practice faithfully a life of faith with creation at the center of our imaginations as local congregations. This retreat is a primer to the follow-up 5-week course in April and May with Deacon Jessica Zimmerle (see below).

Registration Link: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScG0nJL5k9Zy-9D9kdZVI-HqglXCZpUHSsJV3GqfNiyEUcSw/viewform?usp=pp_url

About the Faculty Facilitator:

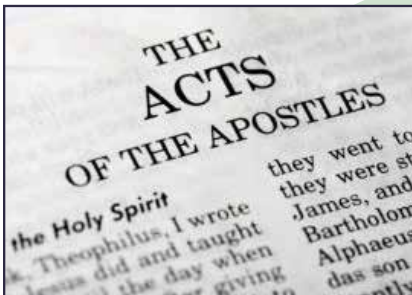

Sister Jessica Zimmerle has served as a community organizer in the faith-based environmental justice movement for 10 years, most recently as the Advocacy Director of Earth Ministry/Washington Interfaith Power & Light. She centers stories and values in her work supporting congregations living out their call to care for creation and mobilizing individuals taking action as faithful advocates on issues of environmental justice. Sister Jessica lives out this vocation as a Minister of Word and Service and member of the Deaconess Community of the ELCA.

The Kin-dom of God and Environmental Justice

Class meets for 5 weeks on Zoom, 6:30-8 PM
Thursdays, April 13, 20, 27, (1 week off), May 11, May 18

This 5-week series will help you consider and embody how faith lives at the intersection of co-creating a just and sustainable future. Using the ELCA Social Statement on Caring for Creation as a guide, participants will build a faith-based foundation with a toolkit of resources for taking action as stewards of Earth and advocates for environmental justice. Come and learn how you and your congregation can engage this essential, and timely, vocation to care for creation in a way that centers justice.

A Rocking Start: Ballard Sunday Dinner

by Amy Borgmeyer

Ballard Sunday Dinner (BSD) is off to a rocking start in 2023! In the first quarter, we've served more than 150 plates to about 80 people (some people take things to go) and the count of those served is going up each week! Thanks to the awesome volunteers who are stepping up to help us out doing everything from cooking and serving to assembling silverware bundles and making sure the recyclables are taken out.

BSD occurs on the third Sunday of each month at Ballard First Lutheran Church. We are always looking for volunteers to help each month but we're especially hoping for some folks to learn to be leads so we can add you to the rotation.

- Early lead is straight forward – planning the meal (recipes and grocery lists are available to help, as are instructions) and leading the volunteers through cooking and plating.
- Late lead focuses on making sure everyone is served and the kitchen and hall are cleaned up afterwards.
- All the roles have lots of availability (we'll partner up with you until you're comfortable) so we hope you'll consider signing up.

Reach out to Amy Borgmeyer (amy.borgmeyer@gmail.com) if you have any questions. We'll see you soon!
