

24th Sunday after Pentecost Christ, the King

November 23, 2025 | 9 AM

WELCOME!

Welcome! It is a joy to worship together!

As a community in the model of Christ, we warmly welcome all who have come seeking God in worship at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church. We welcome people of every race, gender, ethnic background, social status, physical ability, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Together in our diversity and as a Reconciling in Christ congregation, we seek to embrace the love of God offered to us in Jesus Christ. We gather to experience the presence of God in Word and Sacrament and to give praise to God who loves us unconditionally.

All are Welcome to Communion! Christ hosts this meal, and ALL are invited to share this feast of life and forgiveness. Our shared communion bread is gluten free and we offer wine and grape juice. Children commune at the discretion of their parents. If you do not wish to receive communion, we invite you to come forward to receive a blessing.

If you would like communion in your seat, please let an usher know.

OUR VISION: In the model of Christ and for the life of the world, we are an inclusive, devoted, caring and spiritual community that accepts challenges, takes risks and grows.

Our Redeemer's is proud to be a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) church.

We are gathered on this land, which touches the shared waters of the peoples of the Suquamish, Tulalip, and Muckleshoot Nations. This is God's creation and home to the Coast Salish peoples, whose long history, voices, and practices call inhabitants to loving stewardship, faithful advocacy, and inclusive story-telling. We honor the Creator's presence in this land, confess our complicity in its brokenness, and proclaim our interconnectedness with God's creation and all its creatures.

*GREETING

The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all. (2 Corinthians 13:14)

And also with you.

*PRAYER

We turn to God in prayer.

Almighty and ever-living God, you anointed your beloved Son to save and redeem us by the riches of your grace. Give this world the vision of hope we share in your name—a world of truth and care, a world united in cooperation for the life and joy of your creation. Grant us the patience, tenacity, faith, and humility to live in the image of your Son; may your gospel free us for justice, your love unite us for service, and your reign bring us to peace. Amen.

PROCLAIM

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 23:1–6

When one turns to the Lord, the veil [over the mind] is removed. (2 Corinthians 3:16–17)

Hear what the Spirit is saying.

Our ears and hearts are open.

¹ Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord.

² Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. ³ Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴ I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall no longer fear or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

⁵ The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

⁶ In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: “The Lord is our righteousness.”

Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

Thank God!

SECOND READING

Colossians 1:11–20

A reading from Colossians.

¹¹ May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, so that you may have all endurance and patience, joyfully ¹² giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. ¹³ He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation, ¹⁶ for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ²⁰ and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

Thank God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL READING

Luke 23:33-43

The good news of Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

³³ When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁴ [[Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.]] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. ³⁵ And the people stood by watching, but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" ³⁶ The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine ³⁷ and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" ³⁸ There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

³⁹ One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" ⁴⁰ But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? ⁴¹ And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." ⁴² Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come in your kingdom." ⁴³ He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise."

Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen. (2 Peter 3:18)

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

As we pray aloud and in our hearts, notice how you are standing, sitting, and how we use our hands and bodies. We give thanks for all that God gives us. We pray for the hands clasped in hope of God's help. We pray for healing hands, hands that build community, and extend our hands in blessing those that are in need.

Silence for contemplation.

*Please close your thanksgivings, petitions, laments, and prayers with Loving God,
and we will all respond
hear us as we pray.*

We pray for any who are hungry, living in poverty or desperation, weary in body or spirit, or sick. Comfort all in need of your tender care. We pray for our neighbors, and especially for those named in our prayer list. Loving God,
hear us as we pray.

For the relational ministries of this congregation, we pray. Give us a spirit of generosity, eyes and ears attuned to joy and sorrow, and hearts for connection. Bless the work of those who feed and nourish us. Raise leaders among us and give new life to our ministries of hospitality, welcome, and accompaniment. Loving God,
hear us as we pray.

For whom and what else do we pray?

(at the close of the Prayers)

We turn over these prayers to you, O Lord, trusting in your power to intercede for us (Hebrews 7:25)
and hoping in your power to save all who call on your name. Amen. (John 14:13-14)

COMMUNE

*PEACE

Jesus said, "My peace I leave with you. My peace I give you". (John 14:27)

The peace of Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

*We greet each other with sign of Christ's peace
by gesture and word, such as "Peace be with you."*

OFFERING

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control."

In this time of offering, we return to God the first fruits of the Spirit, which God has grown in us.

Gifts may be made online at www.ourredeemers.net/donate or by scanning this code.

OFFERING MUSIC

*OFFERING PRAYER

Merciful and compassionate God,
by your word, you create all that is good;
may we return to you the first fruits of our life and labors, and gratefully receive what you have prepared for us in this meal, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(adapted from 1 Timothy 4:4)

AT THE TABLE

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks, O God,
through Jesus Christ, your beloved Son, whom you sent to preach good news to the afflicted,
to break bread with the outcast and despised,
and to free the world from its bondage to sin.

In every age you sent prophets to make known your loving will for all humanity.

You comforted your people with the promise of the Redeemer, through whom you will also make all things new in the day when he comes to judge the world in righteousness.
And so, with your Son, our Lord Jesus, seated with you glory,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

HOLY

How Majestic Is Your Name

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

In the breaking of this bread, reveal for us the face of our risen Lord, Jesus, (Luke 24:30)
the first fruits of the resurrection (1 Corinthians 15:20) raised in offering for our life together. (Hebrews 9:14)

Turn us toward Christ and one another by the power of your Spirit, that we may live in Christ, our true vine,
to joyfully share the fruits of your love until he returns to harvest what has been planted, prepared, grown, and gathered, to glorify your holy name. Amen. (adapted from John 16)

LORD'S PRAYER

We pray in the language of our hearts as our Lord, Jesus has taught us.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Many of us have experienced rejection, exclusion, and marginalization at different times in our lives,
but we return here,
knowing we will not be turned away.

So come, whether this is your first time, or your hundredth.
All who have tried to follow,
all God's people needing healing and wholeness;
Come to this simple feast.
God's table is big enough for all of us.

All Are Welcome

to commune, including children (as parents permit).

After communing, please feel moved to light candles in witness of Christ's light in your life by prayer and inspiration.

Thanksgiving - Ways You Can Still Help!

Care Kit Assembly this Tuesday, 2-6 PM | Fellowship Hall

This year, we did not receive enough commitment to be able to offer our annual Thanksgiving meal for the community, but there are still ways to help feed and support our neighbors.

Copies of a list of places where volunteers may be able to serve and hungry people can be fed are available. We will be offering this list, some means to take public transportation, and transportation information on Thanksgiving Day. We will also be able to support those who show up hungry with a snack to hold them over as they make their way to another venue, and give out care kits for those that need them.

This Tuesday, November 25, from 2-6 pm, you are invited to help out! We'll be assembling sandwiches and care bags, along with directions to local community meals, to hand out on Thanksgiving Day. Come for any part of the afternoon — stay as long as you can! Bring the kids! We'd love to see you.

If you'd like to join us, call the office to let us know (206-783-7900). Together, we can do our part to share the spirit of gratitude and generosity this Thanksgiving.

Luciafest & Christmas Eve Volunteer Opportunities

We are currently in search of numerous volunteers for Luciafest on Sunday evening, Dec. 14th!

Available roles include set up (arranging furniture and preparing food), serving food, clean up, and ushers. Lucia is usually one of our busiest community nights, so we need all the help we can get. If interested, sign up at <https://rebrand.ly/tpjvxx9>, use the QR code here; or email Lake, volunteer@ourredeemers.net. You may email Lake or Holly Gundaker, hgundack@live.com with any questions.

Help make the Christmas Eve Service happen! We need volunteers to assist to help with our 4:00 pm Family Candlelight Service or our 10:00 pm Traditional Candlelight Service. Volunteer jobs entail serving communion as a family, lighting the Advent wreath, ushering, greeting, and presenting various readings or prayers. If you or your family are interested participating, you are encouraged to email Lake, volunteer@ourredeemers.net or sign up at this link: <https://rebrand.ly/e87v72g>, or use the QR code at right.
