

First Sunday of Advent

December 1, 2024 | 9 AM

WELCOME!

Welcome! It is a joy to worship together!

As a community in the model of Christ, we warmly welcome all who have come seeking God in worship at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church. We welcome people of every race, gender, ethnic background, social status, physical ability, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Together in our diversity and as a Reconciling in Christ congregation, we seek to embrace the love of God offered to us in Jesus Christ. We gather to experience the presence of God in Word and Sacrament and to give praise to God who loves us unconditionally.

All are Welcome to Communion! Christ hosts this meal, and ALL are invited to share this feast of life and forgiveness. Our shared communion bread is gluten free and we offer wine and grape juice. Children commune at the discretion of their parents. If you do not wish to receive communion, we invite you to come forward to receive a blessing. To receive communion at your seat, please alert an usher.

OUR VISION: In the model of Christ and for the life of the world, we are an inclusive, devoted, caring and spiritual community that accepts challenges, takes risks and grows.

Our Redeemer's is proud to be a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) church.

We are on land created by God and stewarded for generations by the indigenous ancestors of the Duwamish people, who are still here. We honor the Creator's continuing presence in this land, confess our complicity in its brokenness, and awaken to our connectedness with all of creation.

WELCOME

*CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God,
the one in our midst,
whose power is peace and forgiveness, whose salvation is healing and hope whose mercy is love and joy, for all people.

Amen.

Trusting in God's promises of new life and loving presence, let us confess our sin.
Silence is kept for contemplation.

Almighty God,
we confess that we have sinned.
We cling to earthly power and prevent the light of your peace from shining.
We turn to our own accomplishments and deny your will.
We do not forgive as we have been forgiven.
We seek out kings of this world
and sit in darkness.

continued

Please stand, as you are able.*

God, our Savior,

we confess that we have sinned.

We cling to complacency and prevent the light of your hope from shining.

We turn from repentance and healing and deny your grace.

We seek out convenient discipleship
and sit in darkness.

Merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned.

We cling to fleeting comforts and prevent the light of your joy from shining.

We turn from our neighbors to serve our own interests and deny your presence.

We seek out false prophets
and sit in darkness.

Do not fear—do not let your hands grow weak.

The LORD, your God, is in your midst, and will rejoice over you with gladness,

and will renew you through love;

and will exult over you with loud singing,

And will save the lame

and gather the outcast,

and will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

(Zephaniah 3:16-19)

*LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH: THE LIGHT OF HOPE

The congregation sings as the Hope Candle is lit.

1 O come, O come, Em - man - u - el, and ran - som cap - tive

Wreath-lighters say:

A light shines in the darkness

And the darkness did not overcome it.

*GATHERING SONG

In These Darkest Days - Mertes

In these darkest days,
Bring your light to our lives.
Like the moon on the snow,
In your hope we will glow.

*GREETING

The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray together.

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. Lead us through the darkness of this world by light and hope. By your merciful protection alert us to the threatening dangers of our sins, and by the power of your Spirit, redeem us for your life of justice and peace. Help us to see the signs of your presence, and give us faith to be steadfast amid the tumults of this world, trusting that your kingdom comes and your will is done through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

PROCLAIM

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 33:14-16

A reading from the Prophecy of Jeremiah.

Hear what the Spirit is saying.

Our ears and hearts are open.

¹⁴ The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ¹⁵ In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶ In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

Word of God. Word of Life.

Thanks be to God!

PSALM

Psalm 25:1-10

A reading from the Psalms.

¹To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

²O my God, in you I trust;

do not let me be put to shame;

do not let my enemies exult over me.

³Do not let those who wait for you be put to shame;

let them be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.

⁴Make me to know your ways, O LORD;

teach me your paths.

⁵Lead me in your truth, and teach me,

for you are the God of my salvation;

for you I wait all day long.

⁶Be mindful of your mercy, O LORD, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

⁷Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions;

according to your steadfast love remember me,

for your goodness' sake, O LORD!

⁸Good and upright is the LORD;

therefore he instructs sinners in the way.

⁹The LORD leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

¹⁰All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.

Holy Wisdom. Holy Word. Thanks be to God!

*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Send Us a Sign - Mertes

Send us a sign, your people look up, your people look east.

Send us your Word, your people need peace.

Allelu-ia, Allelu-ia -a- a.

Send us a sign.

The good news of Jesus Christ, from the Gospel of Luke:

[Jesus said:] ²⁵ “There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. ²⁶ People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷ Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in a cloud’ with power and great glory. ²⁸ Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

²⁹ Then he told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees; ³⁰ as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. ³¹ So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. ³² Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. ³³ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

³⁴ “Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, ³⁵ like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶ Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Thank God!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the promise that God is with us, let us pray for all people and places that await God's day of justice and peace.

A brief silence.

Lord, our righteousness, fill your church with renewed passion for our shared mission, and deepen our relationships with other Christians and other faith traditions in our local community and across the world. Lord, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Lord of all creation, help us sense your goodness and love in the sun and moon, in sprouting leaves and bare branches, in the roaring sea and quiet breeze. Lord, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Lord of the nations, give leaders and all in authority hearts for justice and peace. Encourage efforts to enact policies that benefit the common good. Lord, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Lord, our strength and our hope, be near to all who are changing jobs, moving, welcoming children, or facing the loss of loved ones. Sustain those who are ill or suffering. We especially pray for those named in our prayer list this week. In times of change, remind us of your steadfast love. Lord, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Lord of love, sustain our care for one another. Inspire us to seek new ways to live together and to embrace the diversity of thought and identity in our communities. Enable us to discern your will for this community, your church. Lord, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

For whom and what else do we offer to God in prayer?

Lord of life, we give you thanks for faithful ones who have died. Tend to our grief and sorrow with renewed trust in your promise of abundant and eternal life. Lord, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Silence for reflection.

Savior of the nations, come, and receive these prayers and the pleas of our hearts, in the name of Jesus Christ.

Amen.

*OFFERING PRAYER

Let us pray.

God of mercy and grace, the eyes of all wait upon you, and you open your hand in blessing.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Wonderful Counselor, Everlasting Father, Mighty God,
Prince of Peace: endless is your mercy and eternal your reign.
You have filled all creation with light and life;
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

We praise you for the grace shown to your people in every age:
your good news of hope and peace,
your promises of joy and love,
your word of salvation and the age to come,
spoken through your prophets,
proclaimed in your holy places,
written on the hearts of all your people.
And we give thanks at this end of all the ages,
for your promise fulfilled in the coming of your Son,
who proclaimed your reign by word and deed,
and was obedient to your will, even to giving his life.

“In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

With this, the bread and cup of your blessed promise,
we remember your Word dwelling among us,
and share in the hope of our calling.
May your Word take root in us that by these gifts of grace and faith your Spirit blossom and flower in us
the life Jesus Christ, your Son.

All praise and glory are yours,
Holy One of Israel,
Emmanuel, God-with-us,
Power of the Most High,
one God, now and forever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Let us pray the prayer Jesus taught us in whatever version is most prayerful for you:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Many of us have experienced rejection, exclusion, and marginalization at different times in our lives, but we may come forward here knowing that we will not be turned away.

So come. Come, whether this is your first time or your hundredth.

Come, because this feast is a reminder that God's table is big enough for all of us.

So come, all have a place at the table

All Are Welcome

LAMB OF GOD

We Wait - Mertes

We wait for the Son to come again

We wait for hope to rise

We wait, prepared to serve again

We wait for the dawn on high

Have mercy on us.
