

Transfiguration of Our Lord

February 15, 2026 | 9 AM

WELCOME!

Welcome! It is a joy to worship together!

As a community in the model of Christ, we warmly welcome all who have come seeking God in worship at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church. We welcome people of every race, gender, ethnic background, social status, physical ability, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Together in our diversity and as a Reconciling in Christ congregation, we seek to embrace the love of God offered to us in Jesus Christ. We gather to experience the presence of God in Word and Sacrament and to give praise to God who loves us unconditionally.

All are Welcome to Communion! Christ hosts this meal, and ALL are invited to share this feast of life and forgiveness. Our shared communion bread is gluten free and we offer wine and grape juice. Children commune at the discretion of their parents. If you do not wish to receive communion, we invite you to come forward to receive a blessing.

If you would like communion in your seat, please let an usher know.

OUR VISION: In the model of Christ and for the life of the world, we are an inclusive, devoted, caring and spiritual community that accepts challenges, takes risks and grows.

Our Redeemer's is proud to be a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) church.

We are gathered on this land, which touches the shared waters of the peoples of the Suquamish, Tulalip, and Muckleshoot Nations. This is God's creation and home to the Coast Salish peoples, whose long history, voices, and practices call inhabitants to loving stewardship, faithful advocacy, and inclusive story-telling. We honor the Creator's presence in this land, confess our complicity in its brokenness, and proclaim our interconnectedness with God's creation and all its creatures.

*BAPTISMAL REMEMBRANCE

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

This was the one John the Baptist spoke about when he said, “Among you stands one whom you do not know.”

The Word was in the world, and the world came into being through him, yet the world did not know him. (John 1, excerpts)

Water is poured. We baptize in the name of the Father!

In those days, John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness of Judea, proclaiming, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

Jerusalem and all Judea and all the region around the Jordan were going out to him, and they were baptized by him in the River Jordan, confessing their sins.

John said, “I baptize you with water for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is more powerful than I;
he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.”

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him.
(Matthew 3, excerpts)

The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, “Behold! Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!”
(John 1:29)

Water is poured. We baptize in the name of the Son!

And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw God’s Spirit descending like a dove and alighting on him.

And a voice from the heavens said,
“This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” (Matthew 3:16-17)

Water is poured. We baptize in the name of the Holy Spirit!

*OPENING SONG

Shine, Jesus Shine

Refrain

The musical notation is written on three staves in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are written below each staff.

*GREETING

The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. (2 Corinthians 13:14) And also with you.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. God of grace, we celebrate today the revealing of Jesus among your prophets—witnesses to your glory on earth. As Jesus showed the disciples your glory on the mountain, may we also see your light and presence in the world even as we seek to follow his path in the low, humble, and inglorious places of our lives. Give us clear senses to witness your life and work in and among us now; we pray this through Emmanuel, God with us, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PROCLAIM

FIRST READING

2 Peter 1:16-21

Faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the Word of Christ. (Romans 10:17)

Hear what the Spirit is saying.
Our ears and hearts are open.

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word.
Thank God!

*GOSPEL READING

Matthew 17:1-13

The good news of Jesus Christ from the Gospel of Matthew.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

The gospel of the Lord.

Thank God!

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Beholding the glory of God among us through the Holy Spirit, we offer our prayers for ourselves, our neighbors, and the world.

Silence for contemplation.

As God's beloved children united in Christ
we pray aloud or in silence, for what concerns us,
for what we're grateful,
for those people, places, and powers that lay on our hearts, closing with the words, "God of grace and truth,"
and we will all respond hear us as we pray.

For what and whom do we pray?

We give these prayers to you, O God, believing your love for us and grace give us eternal comfort, and in good hope may be strengthened in heart by every good work and word, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. (2 Thessalonians 2:16-17)

COMMUNE

*PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you all.
And also with you.

*We greet each other with sign of Christ's peace
by gesture and word, such as "Peace be with you."*

Transfiguration

*OFFERING PRAYER

We turn to God in prayer:

Gracious God,
no eye has seen, no ear has heard what you have prepared for those who love you, yet in this meal you reveal the wideness of your mercy.

Use what we have gathered to feed us with the reign of God come near,
with Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

*AT THE TABLE

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks, Lord God!
Behold, it is you who made the heavens and the earth
by your great power and by your outstretched arm!

Nothing is too difficult for you.

You show steadfast love to the thousandth generation.

(Jeremiah 32:17-18)

Fulfilling the word of your prophets, you sent John to announce the coming of the Messiah, your Son, Jesus Christ, saying “Behold! Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!”
(John 1:29)

We praise you that, at the right time, your Son died for us
reconciling us through your love:
(Romans 5:6, 21)

Behold! In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.
(1 Corinthians 11:23-24)

For now we see only a reflection, as in a mirror, but then we will see face to face.
Now we know only in part; then we will know fully, even as we are fully known.
(1 Corinthians 13:12)

Believing your love has been poured into our hearts
by water and your Word, may we have assurance and steadfastness of faith that joined to you in this meal, your grace and presence is with us
by the power of your Holy Spirit, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
(Adapted, Romans 5:3-5, 1 Peter 5:9-11)

LORD'S PRAYER

We pray in the language of our hearts as our Lord, Jesus has taught us.

Our Father in heaven,
holy be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Many of us have experienced rejection, exclusion, and marginalization at different times in our lives, but we come here, knowing we will not be turned away.
So come, whether this is your first time, or your hundredth.
All who have tried to follow—all God's people needing healing and wholeness;
Come to this simple feast. God's table is big enough for all of us.

All Are Welcome

TABLE BLESSING

“The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father’s only son, full of grace and truth.” (John 1:14)

May the Body and Blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ strengthen us, and keep us in everlasting grace and in eternal life. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We pray:

In the breaking of bread, O God,
you have drawn us to your heart and we have seen the face of Christ.

Now, send us from this table to reflect the face of your love, and bear witness to all we have seen and heard,
through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

PATH DOWN THE MOUNTAIN

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.” And the disciples asked him, “Why, then, do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” He replied, “Elijah is indeed coming and will restore all things, but I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but they did to him whatever they pleased.

So also the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands.” Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist. (Matthew 17:10-13)

Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised.” (Matthew 17:22)

*BLESSING

“See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God,
and that is what we are.” (1 John 3:1)

“May the God of our Lord Jesus ☩ Christ, the Father of glory, give us a spirit of wisdom and revelation as we come to know God’s Word.” Amen. (Ephesians 1:17)

9 AM Informal Worship | In-person

During informal worship the neighbor to your left or right might be a young child, a grandparent or maybe the pastor. Your bulletin, containing songs, prayers and event information, gives you everything you need to know. In this hour-long service, we are lead in singing a mix of traditional hymns and contemporary music. We hear a challenging and thoughtful message, pray together and take communion. Children are welcome and, for the little ones, our staffed nursery is open.

11 AM Traditional Worship | In-person & Online

The 11:00 am service is liturgy deeply rooted in the Lutheran tradition of God's living word. Join together in prayer, familiar hymns and communion at God's all-welcoming table, and hear a thoughtful message from Pastor Thomas that you can carry into your week. We wish one another peace and blessings and leave the service more connected, challenged and hopeful than before.

- The Nursery is available Sunday mornings, newborn to age 4.
- The "Prayground" in the sanctuary is available to families with little ones. This intentional space helps them participate fully in worship in a way that is developmentally appropriate.

Lenten Devotions: Cycle of Holy Week

Like our journey through Advent, this year's Lenten devotional calendar recognizes the cycles that shape our lives of faith through prayer, season, and liturgy. From Transfiguration Sunday and Mardi Gras through Holy Week and Easter Monday, we will follow a series of actions inspired by the imitation of Jesus, guided by daily verses from the Psalms. How to Participate:

- The devotional calendar is updated weekly by Pastor Thomas and is available in the following formats:
- Digital: Download the latest PDF via the link in our weekly email or on the church website.
- In-Person: Pick up a printed hard copy in the narthex every Sunday.
- By Mail: If you cannot make it to service and would like a hard copy mailed to you, please contact the office at office@ourredeemers.net.

Ash Wednesday February 18

7 PM Worship

The service of Ash Wednesday reminds us to practice humility and recognize our place within and for creation. The invitation to bear ashes in the form of the cross is a reminder of the way of the cross is our way of life, and the way of grace, as we trust and walk in the Way, the Truth, and the Life: Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Ashes to Go

Corner of NW 85th & 25th NW

Pastor Thomas will be on the corner by our parking lot offering ashes and blessings from before work hours 6:30-8:30 am, during lunch break 11:30 am-1:30 pm, and before dinner 4:30-5:30 pm. Come by, whether you plan to attend the 7pm service or not!

A FORCE FOR POSITIVE SOCIAL CHANGE

Today: Ballard Sunday Dinner

Every third Sunday, Ballard Sunday Dinner (BSD) partners with local churches at Ballard First Lutheran to serve a warm, nourishing meal to our neighbors in need. It's a simple act of kindness that can have a big impact, especially during the colder months. No experience is necessary—our team will guide you every step of the way to ensure you feel comfortable and supported. Help out for an hour or two by signing up here: <https://rb.gy/ea817> for upcoming dinners. Thank you for helping us spread warmth to our community!

Social Justice 3% Disbursement Meeting & Check-in

This Tuesday, February 17, 6:30 PM | Zoom

We are meeting via Zoom, (<https://bit.ly/4rilg4e>), this Tuesday, February 17th at 6:30 pm to decide on the disbursement of social justice funds. Additionally, we'd like to check in with folks regarding social justice issues, where you are being called to focus your attention and energy, along with sharing various resources that are available to plug in to. This is a group effort; if you have resources to share, please bring them!

Ballard Food Bank Donations Needed - Drop Off at Church

This February, we invite you to support the Ballard Food Bank by donating food and personal care items. With the cold weather, mittens and gloves are especially needed, along with socks. Please donate clean, good-condition gloves and/or mittens in all sizes and colors. The following items are also needed: ramen noodles, crackers, snack bars, peanut butter, jelly, cereal, dried fruit, and fruit cups. Nonperishable foods needed include tuna, canned meats, chili, soup, white, red, and black beans, cornmeal, masa harina, muffin mixes, crackers, and peanut butter. Personal hygiene items

6:30 PM | February 20, 27, March 6, 13, 20, 27 | Cafe Munir, 2408 NW 80th St. (and other locations TBD)

During Lent, we are invited to practice not only fasting, but community. Join us for Friday evening dinners throughout the Lenten season as we gather around shared meals for meaningful conversation, mindful eating, and reflection on food, family, and faith. Our first gathering will be at Cafe Munir; future locations will be decided together. RSVP to Pastor Thomas by February 12 at pastorthomas@ourredeemers.net so seating can be reserved. If cost is a concern, assistance is available.
