

First Sunday in Lent

March 9, 2025 | 9 AM

WELCOME!

Welcome! It is a joy to worship together!

As a community in the model of Christ, we warmly welcome all who have come seeking God in worship at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church. We welcome people of every race, gender, ethnic background, social status, physical ability, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Together in our diversity and as a Reconciling in Christ congregation, we seek to embrace the love of God offered to us in Jesus Christ. We gather to experience the presence of God in Word and Sacrament and to give praise to God who loves us unconditionally.

All are Welcome to Communion! Christ hosts this meal, and ALL are invited to share this feast of life and forgiveness. Our shared communion bread is gluten free and we offer wine and grape juice. Children commune at the discretion of their parents. If you do not wish to receive communion, we invite you to come forward to receive a blessing. To receive communion at your seat, please alert an usher.

OUR VISION: In the model of Christ and for the life of the world, we are an inclusive, devoted, caring and spiritual community that accepts challenges, takes risks and grows.

Our Redeemer's is proud to be a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) church.

We are on land created by God and stewarded for generations by the indigenous ancestors of the Duwamish people, who are still here. We honor the Creator's continuing presence in this land, confess our complicity in its brokenness, and awaken to our connectedness with all of creation.

Silence for Contemplation.

*CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Thus says the Lord:
A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping.

A voice says, "Cry out!"
All flesh is grass;
The grass withers; the flower fades.

A voice cries out:
"In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord;
make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Thus says the Lord:
The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness.

When Israel sought for rest,
the Lord appeared from long ago.

Thus says the Lord:
Keep your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears,
for there is a reward for your work.

Set up road markers for yourself;
make yourself signposts;
consider well the highway,
the road by which you went.

Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Please stand, as you are able.*

continued

I have loved you with an everlasting love;
 therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.

I will forgive their iniquity and remember their sin no more.

The grass withers; the flower fades,
but the word of God will stand forever.

(from Jeremiah 31 and Isaiah 40)

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

O Lord God, as generations were transformed in wilderness, becoming your people and following your ways, we pray, guide us now, so we may walk the way of Christ, trusting in your deliverance and safe keeping. Lead us as your people through our Lenten pilgrimage by the light of his cross, so that we may more and more be conformed by the transformation of our minds, letting the same mind be in us as in Christ Jesus. We pray this through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 26:1-11

God's people entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. (Exodus 19:2)

"Listen, O my people, and I will speak...I am God, your God." (Psalm 50:7)

Hear what the Spirit is saying:

Our ears and hearts are open.

¹ When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, ² you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. ³ You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." ⁴ When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, ⁵ you shall make this response before the Lord your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. ⁶ When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, ⁷ we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. ⁸ The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; ⁹ and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰ So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me." You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. ¹¹ Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

Word of God, Word of Life.

Thank God.

PSALM

Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16

Let us pray the Psalm responsively.

¹You who live in the shelter of the Most High,
who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, ²will say to the LORD "My refuge and my fortress;
my God, in whom I trust."

⁹Because you have made the LORD your refuge,
the Most High your dwelling place, ¹⁰no evil shall befall you,
no scourge come near your tent.

¹¹For the LORD will command angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

¹²On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.

¹³You will tread on the lion and the adder,
the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.

¹⁴Those who love me, I will deliver;
I will protect those who know my name.

¹⁵When they call to me, I will answer them;
I will be with them in trouble,
I will rescue them and honor them.

¹⁶With long life I will satisfy them,
and show them my salvation.

Glory be to God
now and forever.
Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mertes/Fund

We are tur - ning Lord to you. You are mer - ci - ful and true.

5 Help us find our way to You, O Lord.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 4:1-13

The good news of Jesus Christ. The voice of one crying out in the wilderness. (Mark 1:1-3)

¹ Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, ² where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. ³ The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." ⁴ Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

⁵ Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. ⁶ And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. ⁷ If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours."

⁸ Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

⁹ Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, ¹⁰ for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,'

¹¹ and

'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

¹² Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" ¹³ When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Repent, and believe in the good news. (Mark 1:15)

Praise Christ.

*LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Led by the Spirit, let us turn to God in prayer for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.

Gracious God, speak your word anew among your church. Strengthen it to withstand the temptation to turn inward in fear or complacency. Move us to journey as one people, united in the life of your Spirit. May we be strengthened and sheltered by your presence that ties us to each other and all your creatures. Embolden worshipping communities to wander the wilderness, and embrace the flow of your rhythm of life. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Heartbeat of all life, gather all around your word of life, which, even in the arid and desert places, sustains plants and creatures. Grant wisdom to your people, that we may quell the urge to strip lands of their resources. We especially pray for all people that participate in speaking for national forests. Move us to learn from creation and sustain its diversity, abundance, and life. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Almighty God, speak truth to power and establish your self-giving love as the mind of justice. Turn leaders from ways and methods that serve private interest at the cost of public good. Soften those whose hearts are hardened. Make the wildness of sin a desert and let your people embrace the wideness of your grace. Break the chains that bind freedom to self-serving and sin. Build communities that shelter and support your people. And raise up leaders from your people who treasure the life of your world. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Speak words of courage to your people in the wilderness. Protect migrants, asylum seekers, and refugees who, driven by love and trusting in your promises, risk life itself in hope of home, refuge, and peace. Form our minds to that of wilderness wanderers and migrants, as your people have often been. Let the wide and wild world you have created be a home where all live as you have made them. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Loving God, speak gently to all who are alone. Bless lay and eucharistic ministers, and others who attend to those who are overlooked, vulnerable, or lonely, that all find belonging in your love. May we recognize in our shared humanity the glory of your face, and the wideness of your mercy. We pray for all who live with mental illness, addiction, pain, and fear. Form around them communities that can offer healing, treatment, and comfort. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

For whom and what else do we pray?

Lord of life, we give thanks for all the faithful who have died and await the resurrection to eternal life. Guide us who have yet to complete our journey on this earth, that we may follow the lives of those who have sought your refuge in the wilderness of this world. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Receive the prayers of your people and draw all things together in your love, in the name of Jesus, who leads us from death to life.
Amen.

Let us pray.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor,

and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed,

our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;

broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food,

the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Let us pray the prayer Jesus taught us in whatever version is most prayerful for you:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Many of us have experienced rejection, exclusion, and marginalization at different times in our lives, but we may come forward here knowing that we will not be turned away.

So come. Come, whether this is your first time or your hundredth.
Come, because this feast is a reminder that God's table is big enough for all of us.
So come, all have a place at a the table

All Are Welcome to commune, including children (as parents permit).

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God who takes a - way the sins of the world have mer - cy on_ us; Lamb of God who takes a - way the sins of the world have mer - cy on_ us; Lamb of God who takes a - way the sins of the world grant us peace.

*COMMUNION SONG

Here I Am, Lord (I, The Lord of Sea and Sky)

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in deepest sin
My hand will save.
I who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

CHORUS

Here I am Lord. Is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.

I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them,
Whom shall I send?

CHORUS

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide Till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

CHORUS

*PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray.

Merciful and gracious God, in your steadfast love you have not fed us with bread alone, but by your very Word of life.

Sustain us in our Lenten fast, that we may seek your ways of mercy:

to feed hunger

and break the chains of injustice to alleviate thirst

and relieve the oppressed

to clothe nakedness

and house the homeless poor to support those in captivity and accompany our neighbors.

We pray this through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.
