

The Resurrection of Our Lord

Easter Service

Believe

5 April 2026

WELCOME!

As a community in the model of Christ, we warmly welcome all who have come seeking God in worship at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church. We welcome people of every race, gender, ethnic background, social status, physical ability, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Together in our diversity and as a Reconciling in Christ congregation, we seek to embrace the love of God offered to us in Jesus Christ. We gather to experience the presence of God in Word and Sacrament and to give praise to God who loves us unconditionally.

OUR VISION In the model of Christ and for the life of the world, we are an inclusive, devoted, caring and spiritual community that accepts challenges, takes risks and grows.

WORSHIP ONLINE OR BY PHONE

- By phone: call 1-206-337-9723. Then enter this number when prompted: 822 691 346. This method will let you listen in, but not view the service.

A Note About Worship Recordings.

We are livestreaming this service for those at home.

- If you'd prefer not to appear on camera, the back rows are out of view.
- Families, please know there is no expectation to send children forward for the children's message if you'd rather they not be recorded.
- Communion can be taken at your seat; please let an usher know.

We are gathered on this land, which touches the shared waters of the peoples of the Suquamish, Tulalip, and Muckleshoot Nations. This is God's creation and home to the Coast Salish peoples, whose long history, voices, and practices call inhabitants to loving stewardship, faithful advocacy, and inclusive story-telling. We honor the Creator's presence in this land, confess our complicity in its brokenness, and proclaim our interconnectedness with God's creation and all its creatures.

CHRIST, OUR LIGHT, OUR PASSOVER

A flame is carried from the new fire (lit at today's Sunrise Service) to light the new Paschal (Passover) Candle, signifying the new creation in Christ and new year of resurrection light. The candle is normally lit on days commemorating the dead, special occasions when the Holy Spirit and Light of Christ are celebrated, and at baptisms.

Please rise in body or in spirit.

A bell is rung 8 times, signifying the resurrection day, the day of the new covenant—the "eighth day"—and the first day of the new creation.

EASTER GOSPEL

Matthew 28:1-10

After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.” So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers and sisters to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near;

believe in the good news. (Mark 1:15)

Praise to you, O Christ!

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Living God, fill us today and always with the joy of seeing the face of Jesus in this world, living among us. May we trust that you will greet us in the places where Christ stands—in places of celebration and confidence, as well as in grief and disbelief.

Appear in our life together, renew our hope, and reinvigorate our faith in defiance of the power sin that obscures our sight. May we recognize this, the Body of your Son, through whom he lives in and among us, with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

READING

Acts 10:34-43

Faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the Word of Christ. (Romans 10:17)
 Hear what the Spirit is saying. Our ears and hearts are open.

Peter began to speak to [Cornelius and his household]: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every people anyone who fears him and practices righteousness is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all.

That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.
Thanks be to God.

READING

Isaiah 65:17-25

Let us read the passage responsively.

I am about to create new heavens
and a new earth;
the former things shall not be remembered
or come to mind.

Be glad and rejoice forever
in what I am creating,
for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy
and its people as a delight.

I will rejoice in Jerusalem
and delight in my people;
no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it
or the cry of distress.

No more shall there be in it an infant who lives but a few days or an old person who does not live out a lifetime, for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth,
and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.

They shall build houses and inhabit them;
they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
They shall not build and another inhabit;
they shall not plant and another eat,

for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be,
and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
They shall not labor in vain
or bear children for calamity,
for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord—
and their descendants as well.

Before they call I will answer,
while they are yet speaking I will hear.
The wolf and the lamb shall feed together;
the lion shall eat straw like the ox,
but the serpent—its food shall be dust!
They shall not hurt or destroy
on all my holy mountain,
says the LORD.

Word of God. Word of Life.
Thanks be to God!

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Jesus said, “whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours,” and “all things can be done for the one who believes.” (Mark 11:24, 9:23)

Silence for contemplation.

Holy God, we pray for the Body of Christ, the church. Where the church faces violence, protect those who gather. Where the church is wounded, heal it. Where the church clings to worldly power, strengthen its humility and trust in your Son's victory through powerless love. Where the church is wounded, heal it. Help our belief, as an Easter people, so we may embody the gospel in the world.

God of grace, hear our prayer.

Giver of life, we pray for the earth. Join our prayers with branches lifted in praise and roaring waters of new life, that together we may proclaim the Easter hope for a world, restored. Help our belief in the abundance of your creation, so we may protect and caretake what you have given for the life of all creatures.

God of grace, hear our prayer.

Prince of Peace, we pray for all peoples and nations. Let your reign of justice and truth overflow with new ways of living. Wherever oppression and powermongering, and corruption and greed hold us in death, pour out your holy and life-giving Spirit to vindicate and redeem. Raise up those working to free the falsely accused, and enable us to see Christ in those imprisoned. Help our disbelief, so we may not despair of the power of what has been, looking for renewal of humanity in the image of Christ.

God of grace, hear our prayer.

Our Redeemer, we pray for people everywhere who long for good news. Roll away the stones that keep people from living with dignity and wholeness. Empower us to reform, and intercede wherever there is a threat of violence, wherever there is racism, and wherever women, trans and queer persons, and those seeking safety and home. Bring ease and community to those living with mental illness. Help our unbelief, that we may come to your vision of holy community.

God of grace, hear our prayer.

Living God, we pray for our neighbors, and those named in our prayer list. We give thanks for the many ways we may joyfully encourage and accompany each other. Comfort us, like the women at the tomb, with the face of grace, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Feed our belief at your Easter table and raise us to renewed life in your name, so we may share what we have received in witnessing your will for, in, and through us.

God of grace, hear our prayer.

For what else do the people of God pray?

Lord of Life, we remember those who have gone before us in death. Reinvigorate our trust in your promise of the resurrection, that we live with courage and compassion. Bring us all to the time when all the beloved departed shall stand with the living in your presence.

God of grace, hear our prayer.

(The presiding minister concludes the prayers:)

We commend these prayers to you, O God, seeking to love not only in word and speech but in deed and truth, (1 John 3:18)
seeking to do good to one another and to all,
and believing this is your will for us in Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen. (1 Thessalonians 5:15-18)

PEACE

“Since we are justified by faith,
we have peace with God
through our Lord Jesus Christ.” (Romans 5:1)

The peace of Christ be with you all.
And also with you.

*We greet each other with sign of Christ’s peace
by gesture and word, such as “Peace be with you.”*

OFFERING

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us...making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Ephesians 5:2,19-20)

*OFFERING PRAYER

Let us pray.

God of all creation, all you have made is good,
and your love endures forever.

You bring forth bread from the earth and fruit from the vine.

In the breaking of this bread
reveal to us the Risen Christ.

In this meal, O God,
make our joy complete—
declare to us your Word of life, so we may become like those who have seen and felt your presence revealed in eternal life. Amen.

(adapted, 1 John 1:4, 1-2)

*GREAT THANKSGIVING

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy,
 that we should at all times and in all places
 give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, for the glorious resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ,
 the true Paschal Lamb who gave himself for freedom from sin;
 who in dying has destroyed death,
 and in rising has brought us to eternal life.
 And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection,
 with earth and sea and all their creatures,
 and all the hosts of heaven,
 we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

*SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might:

heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

*EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER AND WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Blessed are you, O God of the universe.
We give you thanks
for sending your only Son into the world,
who laid down his life for us,
through whom we know love,
so that we might live through him.
(adapted, 1 John 3:16, 1 John 4:9)

We praise you that, at the right time,
your Son died for us,
reconciling us through your love;
the reign of sin is ended
and your righteousness,
attested by the Law and the Prophets,
is disclosed through the faith for all who believe.
(Romans 5:6, 21, 3:21-23)

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.
(1 Corinthians 11:23-26)

And so, we may proclaim the mystery of faith:
Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Believing your love has been poured into our hearts
by water and your Word,
may we have assurance and steadfastness of faith
that joined to you in this meal,
your grace and presence is with us
by the power of your Holy Spirit, and for the eternal glory of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
(Adapted, Romans 5:3-5, 1 Peter 5:9-11)

LORD'S PRAYER

We pray in the languages of our hearts as our Lord, Jesus has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power,
and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Many of us have experienced rejection, exclusion, and marginalization at different times in our lives, but we come here, knowing we will not be turned away.
So come, whether this is your first time, or your hundredth.
All who have tried to follow—all God's people needing healing and wholeness;
Come to this simple feast.
God's table is big enough for all of us.

All Are Welcome
to commune, including children (as parents permit).

*POST-COMMUNION BLESSING

Jesus said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. All who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day." (John 6:35, 40)

May the Body and Blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ strengthen you, and keep you in everlasting grace and in eternal life. Amen.

*POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

As the fullness of God dwells in Christ
may we come to fullness in him;
As we have received Christ Jesus the Lord,
may we continue to walk in him,
rooted and built up in him
and established in the faith,
just as we were taught,
overflowing with thanksgiving. Amen.
