A Community in the Model of Christ

From the Bishop...

There is a well-known parable where Jesus talks about seeds thrown in wild abandon. Seeds thrown randomly, haphazardly, you could almost say carelessly ... some seeds tossed upon a path, some seeds on rocky ground, some seeds among thorns and other seeds on so-called "good soil." (To read the whole parable, go to Matthew 13:1-9, Mark 4:2-9, Luke 8:4-8.)

In the parable there is extravagance, luxury, lavishness. Truth be told, it is terrible farming. But if you take out what we all know about farming techniques, the throwing of seeds in this parable is unfathomable and incomprehensible and beautiful to behold.

And yet ... so often we want to tame the throwing of seeds. We want to make straight lines and uniform rows. We want organization and structure. We might want new things to grow, but we want them to be what we want. Perhaps newish ... but not new. Undergirding it all, I think we want control over this seed thing.

But this isn't how the Spirit works.

Instead, as we hear in this parable, God's seed-throwing is all about possibility and energy and the extravagance of God. This parable is about the wildness of God's Spirit. The Sower is throwing out seeds with abandon so that something may develop, sprout, and grow – something unexpected, something astonishing.

This, of course, doesn't mean we cast aside everything already growing. Not at all. Nowhere in this parable does it say that the plants already rooted must be cleared before new seeds can be sown. There are deep-rooted plants already flourishing in God's Garden. These plants have lived through trials and joys and still bear fruit. They need to be watered and tended. They deserve our care, our gratitude, our celebration. The new seeds being scattered don't replace what is planted. Instead, they add to the texture and beauty of God's Garden. Old and new. Rooted and scattered.

This parable reminds us that God's Garden is not static—it's alive, growing, evolving.

Of course, some seeds that have been thrown have not always taken root. As the parable says – some seeds fall on rocky ground, other seeds land on thorns. There have been experiments that started with high hopes that ended sooner than we would like. There were perhaps disagreements or different ways of doing things. It is true that what works in one section of God's Garden doesn't necessarily work in others.

But this is why we plant and trust and sow and dig in the dirt. This is why we trust this Sower sowing seeds. For God's Garden is founded not on the quality of soil but on the lavishness of God the Sower through the Spirit.

When I hear this parable, I celebrate the many different ways that we are living into and sharing God's love and grace in this synod – in ways that the saints before us would recognize and cherish, and in ways they might never have imagined.

I invite you to pause for a moment and think of the place and space where you are promised forgiveness and new life, where you receive the body and blood of Jesus, where you hear the proclamation of grace through faith, where you have holy community.

What are some ways that you are deeply rooted? What are some ways that seeds of new possibilities are being planted? What are seeds that are in the wind right now but haven't landed yet? When you think of the broader community where you live – what is your congregation called to in partnership and imagination? How is the Sower throwing seeds of God's love and grace where you live and move and breathe?

In the Northwest Washington Synod, let us rejoice in this time when old and new things come together.

Now is the time that the Spirit is opening us up to new possibilities. Now is the time for listening and collaboration and being in community. Now is the time when we both hold that which we already love and, at the same time, open our hands in order to receive other gifts of promise and wonder.

The dirt, the soil that we are becomes holy ground when God is present. God's seeds of grace fall indiscriminately into the lives of all God's children, into the rocky, thorny, barren and fertile soil of our lives and ministries. The outcome of this gracious sowing cannot be known immediately. One never knows what may come of decadent grace. And yet, day by day, the Sower sows in wild graciousness. And we receive. Together.

A Letter to Parents from Betsy McGregor, Church Council Secretary

I write to you as a representative of the Church Council, regarding safety and security on our church campus. The Council is currently reviewing and revising safety and security policies. One area of focus has been acknowledging the realities of being in an urban environment while remaining true to our church's mission and values.

One of the tenets of Our Redeemer's is that we are a welcoming and open community. We want all of our neighbors to feel invited into our church and to feel God's presence and acceptance. This includes people who may be struggling with untreated mental illness as well as those in the active use stages of drug or alcohol addiction. Each of us on the Council believes it is essential to extend this type of welcome at Our Redeemer's. At the same time, we recognize that untreated mental illness and substance use can sometimes lead to unpredictable, and occasionally concerning or unsafe, behaviors.

As Council works through our safety and security policies and procedures, an area of focus is the safety of children, youth, and vulnerable adults in all aspects of our church community—especially on Sundays during worship.

On Sundays, the exterior doors in the Narthex and Fellowship Hall are unlocked and anyone can enter the building at any time during worship and Sunday morning activities. The Council is particularly concerned about unattended children in these areas during services as there is no staff available to supervise them.

Jordan serves as our church nursery caregiver. During services when nursery care is not needed, he stays in the back of the Sanctuary to help with the children's area.

To be clear, the Narthex and Fellowship Hall remain accessible to you, your children, and anyone else during services. The intention of this email is to ensure all parents, guardians, and responsible adults in our congregation have the information needed to make the best decisions for the children in their care on Sunday mornings.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at bemac7309@gmail.com or reach out to Pastor Thomas.

Worship and Music

Life is challenging and busy right now. This one designated hour helps me feel a little more grounded, a little more able to face the many tasks ahead.

Rhythm of Silence

by Karen Lee, Our Redeemer's Traditional Worship and Music Director

Once a year — from noon on Good Friday to noon on Holy Saturday — our church offers the opportunity for a 24-Hour Prayer Vigil. I sign up each year because that hour of uninterrupted silence and prayer is rare and meaningful.

This time, after reading the provided devotional notebook — with some pages created years ago by my dear mom — and all the slips of paper with hand-written prayers from members of our congregation, I allowed myself to sink into my chair in front of the candle cross. I closed my eyes and asked God to let me hear whatever I needed to hear.

Musician that I am, every sound around me became a rhythm. I first noticed my own heartbeat: steady and always there, though I usually don't pay attention to it — and realize I often take it for granted. Next was the noise of cars — usually annoying to me when I long for silence — but today, I heard music in that too: the crescendo of a motor as it drove past the church, and the decrescendo, almost like wind, as it sped away. The constant ebb and flow of the cars became predictable and even comforting, as strange as that sounds.

I encourage you to sign up for the 24-Hour Prayer Vigil next year. And until then, let's all try to grant ourselves more moments to be still and listen for God in all the many rhythms around us.

Save the Date - June 8

Pentecost Sunday - 9 AM & 11 AM Services

Graduation Sunday - 11 AM Services

We are celebrating Pentecost on Sunday and our graduates on June 8th. Pentecost is the day we recognize God's creation of the Church. It is our tradition to wear red that day. If you have a graduate you'd like celebrate that day, let Pastor Thomas know.

Ongoing Worship Assistant Training

Worship is a large part of our life together as a church. We best represent that life in our worship services with the many gifts shared through prayer, reading, greeting, welcoming, guiding, and sharing of the sacraments. Our Sign-Up Genius online allows you to get involved as you feel moved—signing up for one or more roles helps our sharing of God's works to and through us!

If you have served, or have a desire to serve at worship, and need a refresher or some direction, Pastor Thomas is glad to help you feel confident in your role. Would you like to write prayers of the people? Would you like to both serve at the table and read the scriptures? Would you like to embolden the drama of the liturgy and learn to embody reverence and grace? All these things are possible and more. Contact Pastor Thomas if you are interested or use the QR Code here to sign up online. Thank you for what you do!

Embodied Church: Breath

Sunday, May, 4, 10 AM | Fellowship Hall

Did you know that each of us has probably breathed in some of the same atoms that were exhaled at the Last Supper? Come experience what our breath has to teach us about God, about ourselves, and even about community. (Hint: it's a surprising amount!)

All ages are welcome. We'll end with a nature walk complete with contemplative breath practices.
